Visit the Rosengart Collection

The Rosengart Collection was originally the private art collection of father-and-daughter Siegfried and Angela Rosengart. The collection was established by Angela Rosengart in 1992 but had never previously been made available to the public in its entirety, although individual works have been regularly lent to major exhibitions. The Collection comprises well over 200 works by 23 different "Classic Modernist" artists. These include 125 works by Paul Klee and some 50 by Pablo Picasso. Other artists represented include (in alphabetical order) Bonnard, Braque, Cézanne, Chagall, Dufy, Kandinsky, Laurens, Léger, Marini, Matisse, Miró, Modigliani, Monet, Pissarro, Renoir, Rouault, Seurat, Signac, Soutine, Utrillo and Vuillard.
